STUART TO NAME CODE REVISERS

Will Appoint Commissions on Panama and Statue Presentation.

GIRLS' HOME BOARD.

Institution Located in Chesterfield County Will Shortly Become the Property of State.

Richmond, Va., March 23.—While Virginia people have become much interested in the personnel of the tax commission which will probably be announced this week, among lawyers and judges there is scarcely less interest in the forthcoming appointment of a commission for the revision of the Code of Virginia, a work which some regard as of equal importance with the revision of the tax system. In addition there are to be named, as a result of recent legislation, a joint board for the four state female normal schools, a board for the management of the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls in Chesterfield County, a directer for the Legislative Reference Bureau, a commission to present to Great Britain a replica of the Houdon statue of George Washington, and a commission to supervise the Virginia exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. All interim committees from the General Asembly have been announced to represent Virginia at the unveiling of the monument to President John Tyler in Hollywood; to confer with the Maryland authorities in regard to conservation of fish in Chesapeake Bay; to supervise repairs and improvements at the Executive Mansion to confer with West Virginia authorities in regard to preservation of fish in certain streams, and to audit the accounts of officers at the seat of government.

The tax commission is to be made up of four members of the House of Delegates to be named by Speaker Cox, three members of the Senate to be named by Lieut.-Governor Ellyson, and three citizens to be named by the Governor. There is an appropriation of $30,000 for expenses of this commission, members of which will receive $8.33 per day each while in session, with mileage and expenses.

The new normal school board supersedes the present separate boards each of the four institutions, and to be made up of twelve members named by the Governor, one from each of the ten congressional districts, and two at large.

The Panama Exposition act calls for the appointment by the Governor of three commissioners to have charge of the erection on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco of a suitable building for the State of Virginia, the plan being to make the building a reproduction of Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington. The act carries an appropriation of $50,000. Members of the commission will not be entitled to compensation for their services, but their expenses will be paid.

The act in relation to the presentation of a bronze replica of the Houdon statue of Washington to Great Britain does not specify the size of the commission. An item of $4,000 is carried in the appropriation bill to defray the cost. The act of 1910, providing for the presentation of a replica of this statue to the republic of France, carried a like appropriation of $4,000, and provided for the appointment of three commissioners to make the presentation.

The act creating a Legislative Reference Bureau provides for the appointment by the Governor, with the approval of Senate, "without reference to party affiliation and solely on the ground of fitness to perform the duties of the office," but a director of the bureau at a salary of $2,500 per annum, the term being for five years, unless sooner removed by the Governor for cause. The director must devote his entire time to the work of the bureau, must be a graduate in law, and have been a student of political science for at least twelve months and have had experience in the drafting of statute law. He may employ assistants and fix their compensation, the act carrying $5,000 a year for the salaries and expenses of the bureau.

The Code revision act has been before every General Assembly for four or five sessions, and has each time until the present session been defeated, not for lack of recognition of the need of revision, but through the fear that incompetent men might be named as revisers. The act safeguards the selection in every possible way, providing that the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia shall nominate ten capable men, from whom the governor shall appoint three revisers. The revisers are to receive $6,000 each for their work, regardless of the length of time it may take, though it is believed that prompt steps will be necessary if the revised Code is to be reported to the General Assembly of 1916. The commissioners are to employ a clerk at $1,800 per annum.

The act creating the office of State Forester places the office under the appointment of the State Geological commission, composed of the Governor, the president of the University of Virginia, the president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, the superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute, and one citizen member named by the Governor. The State Forester must have technical training in his profession. The salary is $2,000 per annum and expenses. The act provides for the appointment of local forest wardens, and gives the new official a great variety of important duties in regard to conservation of forests an prevention of fires. The expenses for the first two years are to be paid out of the budget of the University of Virginia, at which institution the State Forester is to conduct certain courses.

MORE SNOW SATURDAY NIGHT

Followed by Clear and Seasonable Weather Yesterday.

The snowfall which set in Saturday night continued until it had assumed a depth of two inches by yesterday. The weather, however, later became clear and milder and most of the snow melted under the sun's rays.

Conditions today have been mild and suggestive of early spring. About ten days ago a "weather authority" in Washington predicted six snows before the advent of spring. That of Saturday night was the fourth which has fallen since this forecast was made.

A gradual return to normal spring temperatures, with generally fair skies, during the coming week, was predicted by the Weather Bureau last night for all sections of the country east of the Rocky Mountains.

"There will be frosts the first part of the week, however," said the bulletin, "in the East Gulf and South Atlantic States, except Southern Florida. West of the Rocky Mountains fair weather and normal temperatures are probable during the week.

"There is nothing to indicate marked storm activity over the country during the week. A disturbance of moderate intensity will appear in the Northwest Wednesday or Thursday, cross the Middle West about Friday and the Eastern States near the end of the week; this disturbance will be attended by local areas of precipitation and be followed by a change to cooler weather in the Northern States east of the Rocky Mountains."

DEAD MOTHER HIS ACCUSER...

Youth Confesses Forgery, Saying She Haunted His Dreams.

Denver, March 23.—A vision of his dead mother, who pointed an accusing finger at him in his dreams, was responsible for Phillip F. Perna, 18 years old, surrendering himself to the police and confessing to the forgery of his father's name on a check for $400 last September. Perna claims to be the son of a Philadelphia building contractor and a former student of Villa Nova College. He says his father's name is Joseph Perna and that the family home in Philadelphia is at No. 334 North Sixty-fifth street.

"I went to bed," Perna says, "and my mother seemed to stand over me. She didn't say anything. She just pointed her finger at me and her face bore a look of unspeakable contempt. I jumped up and screamed and covered my eyes with my hands. Finally I ran out of doors and walked miles. I knew the vision would come back that night and every night unless I cleared myself in her eyes. So I decided to give myself up."

IRELAND FACING A GREAT CRISIS

Intense Anxiety Caused In England by Present Conditions.

KING GEORGE UNEASY.

Liberal Press Condemns Government For Making Overtures to Tory Officers—Cabinet Meeting.

London, March 23.—In the midst of a special cabinet meeting today War Secretary Seely was suddenly called to Buckingham Palace. Colonel Seely left immediately for a conference with King George.

After an extended session with the King, Colonel Seely returned to the cabinet meeting which had been interrupted and which adjourne dsoon afterward. Colonel Seely is believed to have submitted to the cabinet the King's approval of Seely's statement to be made to the House of Commons this afternoon.

The attention of all England was drawn today toward the situation in the army growing out of the refusal of many officers to serve in Ulster. The threatening disruption of the service had for the time being all but overshadowed the warlike preparations being made to deal with the Unionists and the reports from Belfast of the activities of Sir Edward Carson.

With Field Marshal Sir John French, presiding, a special meeting of the army council was held today.

The amazing spectacle of the war office negotiating with recalcitrant tory officers has thoroughly aroused the liberal press, which roundly scores the government for temporizing with the officers.

The News, in an editorial which is typical of the expression of other liberal papers, demands the dishonorable dismissal of the officers who refuse to serve in Ulster and a drastic reorganization of the army so that it may become "the faithful democratic instrument of a democratic people."

"It is only because we have allowed the army to be officered almost exclusively by wealthy Tories that the idea of bringing the army against Parliament could enter the heads of the Tory oligarchers' the News declares. "That last and most treasonable reaction must be taken from it."

Generals Paget, Gough and Parker were in conference early today with War Secretary Seely.

London, March 23.—Sensational is the only adjective to describe the unprecedented situation caused by the extraordinary development of the Ulster crisis. In spite of all official attempts to minimize the situation there is no doubt about the fact that mutiny has broke out in the British army and that seventy cavalry officers at the Carragh Camp, including General Gough and the colonies of the Fifth and Sixteenth Lancers, have expressed their determination to resign rather that obey the orders to fight in Ulster.

First of all, Premier Asquith was closeted with Colonel Seely, Winston Churchill and Augustine Birrell at Downing street. At 2 o'clock the Archbishop of Canterbury arrived at the prime minister's residence and remained an hour and a half. Besides being head of the Church of England, the Archbishop is in touch with the clergy of the established church in Ireland, many of the clergymen of which are marching and drilling in the ranks of the Ulster Volunteers in the week and holding services and prayer on Sunday for deliverance from home rule.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF OUR DEAR MOTHER AND WIFE.

LOUISA ZIMMERMAN, who departed this life two years ago today, March 23, 1912.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home, which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon His love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

NEW WASHINGTON DAILY.

Anti-Saloon League to Start Newspaper in Capital.

The officials of the Anti-Saloon League of America have announced the installation of a new daily paper to be published at Washington, D. C., whose object it shall be primarily to promote the campaign for national Prohibition.

The daily will begin publication on the first day that Congress opens on December next. It will be a cheap, four-page illustrated fighting paper and plans have been matured to give it an immediate circulation of one hundred thousand copies. The price will be only two dollars per year.

The project has been under consideration for some months but the matter was not finally decided upon until a few days ago when three friends of the Anti-Saloon cause staked the project with $50,000 in cash. Another $50,000 is already in sight and it is felt there will be no difficulty in raising $200,000 which is necessary to properly launch the project.

So certain is it that the necessary funds will be forthcoming that already $40,000 worth of printing machinery has been ordered and paid for and contracts are now being made for much additional equipment.

This movement on the part of the National Anti-Saloon League is partly political. It is the intention of the League to take part especially in Congressional elections all over the nation and see that a Congres is selected that will submit to the States a Prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution in case the present Congress does not take that step. Congressmen who oppose the League or sidestep will be opposed for re-election with all the resources of the League organizations, state and national.

Steps are being taken now to purchase a suitable building site centrally located in Washington upon which a tall building will be erected with sufficient space for the publication and editorial rooms and also with space for the accomodation of the Washington offices of the League. It is expected that a four or fifie-story building will be necessary to accommodate the business.

CHAMPIONS TO MEET.

Joe Turner, of Washington, and Joe Willis, of Finland, to Wrestle Here Wednesday.

The wrestling carnival to be staged at the Opera House Wednesday night under the auspices of the Old Dominion Boat Club, should be one of the greatest affairs of the sort ever undertaken by a local organization; and judging from the interest already being displayed and from the large demand for tickets, a capacity house will await the referee's call of "time" for the first bout. Joe Turner, Washington's popular athlete and champion weight wrestler of the world, will endeavor to defend his title against Joe Willis, middle weight champion of Finland. These two men met some time ago at a "smoker" given by the local oarsmen, and their thirty minute bout will long be remembered as one of the classiest ever witnessed in this vicinity. In addition to the main bout, several preliminary matches have been arranged.

Pat O'Connor, of Washington, one of the best known sporting men in the country, will referee all of the contests.

HUSBAND BACK FOR $1.00.

Wife Pays Money to Woman Who Charmed Him Away.

Cincinnati ,O., March 23. — Mrs. Julia Stehlein was paid $1 yesterday when she returned to Mrs. Stella Smith her husband. Mrs. Smith paid the dollar. Mrs. Smith swore out a warrant charging Mrs. Stehlein with a statutory offense. The case came up in police court yesterday.

"For the consideration of 50 cents you will give this woman her husband again, is that correct?" asked the Judge.

"Yes, Judge," replied Mrs. Stehlen.

"I will give her $1, Judge, instead of 50 cents," said Mrs. Smith.

"It looks to me like you are throwing your money away, but I guess the man ought to be worth a dollar," commented the judge. The case was settled when Mrs. Stehlen promised to make the delivery of the man upon the receipt of the $1. The "delivery" was made today.

CANNON BELCH TERRIFIC FIRE

The Attack is Conducted by Veterans in Villa's Service.

FATE OF TORREON.

Constitutionalist General in Frenzy of Excitement—Stops and Instructs Privates in Loading.

Constitutionalist Field Headquarters, before Lerdo, Durango, Mexico, March 23.—Simultaneous attacks by Gen. Francisco Villa's constitutionalist troops were in progres stoday on Lerdo and Goemec Palacio, the two strongly fortified suburbs of Torreon. Upon the fate of these hangs the fate of Torreon itself.

The combined armies of Gen. Tomas Urbina, Rosalio Hernandez, and Trinidad Rodrigues, numbering 5,000 under the personal direction of Villa himself, began the Lerdo assault early today. Several batteries of artillery directed by Generals Angeles and Servin were placed in position and poured a terrific fire into the town during early morning hours.

General Villa was in a frenzy of excitement during the attack, riding about the field fearlessly and encouraging the troops at all points. Several times he was seen to stop and instruct a private soldier in the use of a rifle before resuming his ride.

Meantime, the attack on Gomez Palacio proceeded without interruption. The brigades of General Ortego, Pereyra, and Garcia, with the former in command, conducted this assault. His troops numbered 4,000 men exclusive of the artillery. General Ortega's force constitutes the center of the constitutionalist army, and is made up almost wholly of veterans.

Villa is confident of capturing Lerdo and Gomez Palacio by tonight. His advices from other field commanders today indicate they have had uniform success, and are closing in rapidly.

General Eugenio Aguirre Benavides reports the towns of Zaragosa and Matamoras were occupied by the Zaragosa brigade yesterday. Gen. Contreras and his Durango brigade are supposed to have opened the attack on Torreon from the southerly end today, although no direct report has been received from him. Gen. Nateras with his brigade and the forces of the Arrieta brothers on the east, are cooperating with Conteras.

Mexico City, March 23.—"The Mexican government has no apology to make for the execution of 149 mutineers at Jojutla," declared General Blanquet, minister of war, today, in discussing the investigation which had been made into the wholesale slaughter ordered by General Castro, following a revolt of his conscripted soldiers.

VERDICT IS AGAINST BISHOPS.

Legal Control of Vanderbilt University Lies With Board of Trustees.

Nashville, Tenn., March 23.—The Tennessee Supreme Court has decided that legal control of Vanderbilt University lies with the board of trustees of the institution, not with the College of Bishops of the Southern Methodist church.

Acts of the board, however, are subject to a review by the general conference of the church, or by the church's board of education, the court held.

The court ordered that three contested seats on the board of trustees be awarded to those chosen by the board itself, declaring the Southern Methodist General Conference had acted without authority in making selections for these places.

The decision of the court was based on the promise thate Cornelius Vanderbilt, not the Southern Methodist Church, was the founder and original patron of the University.

Under the decision the Southern Methodist College of bishops' veto of acceptance by the board of Andrew Carnegie's gift of $1,000,000 is without effect.

WHY SHE SHOT CALMETTE.

Resented "Abominable Campaign Directed Against Her Husband" By Figaro.

Paris, March 23.—The committee of the Chamber of Deputies inquiring into the allegations that ministerial influence had been brought to bear to secure the postponement of the trial of Henri Rochette on charges of extensive swindling today heard a number of witnesses.

Madame Caillaux, gowned in black, gave her version of the killing of Gaston Calmeete, before Henri Boucard.

Madame Caillaux, in her preliminary examination before Magistrate Henri Boucard today, recounted the motives that induced her to kill Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro. The prisoner was attired in a handsome black gown and astrakan mantle and carried the same muff in which she concealed the revolver the day of the shooting.

Once during her recital Madame Caillaux gave way to her emotion, at other times she appeared calm and fearless.

Madame Caillaux began with a brief history of her married life. Then she remarked:

"I always took great interest in the public life of my husband, sharing the pleasures and the cares of politics."

The prisoner's recital was suspended temporarily when she began sobbing. On resuming her testimony, she said:

"For two years an abominable campaign was directed against my husband, who was attacked on every occasion, notably on the charge that he had secretly ceded a portion of the French Congo to Germany and in connection with the Agadir incident in Morocco. I was deeply grieved by these calumnies, which became particularly venomous at the time of the formation of the Doumergue cabinet. The feeling of hostility I noticed especially at Reims. My indignation was aroused because I had implicit faith in my husband's probity."

Mme. Caillaux declared that since her girlhood she had been a reader of the Figaro. When it joined the enemies of M. Caillaux in the campaign against him, her indignation was intense.

"On Friday, March 13," she said, "the Figaro published the fragment of a letter signed 'Thy Joe.' That letter, I know, was in the possession of a woman, as well as two other private letters written to me by M. Caillaux before our marriage. I sought counsel for the purpose of having the publication of these letters legally prevented but in vain. All these things preyed on my mind and I determined to put a stop to it."

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN LAWYER

Allen Caperton Braxton Passes Away at His Home In Staunton.

BRILLIANT CAREER.

Deceased Was Known as Father of Corporation Commission Through Work in State Convention.

Richmond, March 23.—Allen Caperton Braxton, father of the State Corporation Commission, and author of the chapter on corporations in the Virginia Constitution, died last night at 10:45 o'clock at his home in Statunton, after a long illness, aged fifty-four years. His wife, to whom he was married after his illness became acute; his sister, Mrs. J. S. Horsley, of Richmond, and others were with him at the end. He had been unconsaicous for the greater part of the time for the past four days, and, in fact, for the past six weeks his case had been regarded by physicians as hopeless.

Mr. Braxton had been in bad health for several years, though he had resolutely declined to give up active work, and continued to meet the demands of a large and varied law practice, being regarded by many as the leader of the profession in this State. In December, 1912, he suffered an attack of Bright's disease, for which he was treated in Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, with only temporary benefit. Early last spring he was taken ill again, and after treatment in Baltimore, went to his home in Staunton for a rest of several months, during which period he steadily lost ground, notwithstanding all efforts of his physicians.

In September he was moved to Atlantic City, where he remained several months, and it was while undergoing treatment at the Marlborough-Blenheim Hotel, at Atlantic City, that he married Miss Mary Patterson Miller, daughter of the late Mason Miller, of Staunton, who had since been his constant nurse.

Realizing that his case was hopeless, and that he was nearing his end, his physicians arranged on March 7 for his removal in a private car to his old home in Staunton, where he steadily grew weaker, until the end came last night.

Mr. Braxton is survived by two brothers, Carter Braxton, Commonwealth's Attorney, of Staunton, and Hugh C. Braxton, of Staunton, and by two sisters, Mary, the wife of Judge Henry Holt, of Staunton, and Eliza, the wife of Dr. J. Shelton Horsley, of Richmond. Dr. Horsley visited him last Friday, in Staunton, and found his condition critical. He was then semi-conscious, and during the last day was entirely unconscious.

Allen Caperton Braxton was the son of Dr. Tomlin Braxton and Mrs. Mary Caperton Braxton, of King William County, He was born at Union, Monroe county, W. Va., on February 6, 1862. His mother was the daughter of Allen T. Caperton, United States Senator, from West Virginia, after whom he was named.

FISHING SEASON IS NEAR

Shad and Herring Will Soon Be Finding Their Way Up the River

It is an old tradition that the fishing season is preceded by thunder and lighting, and at the first sound of heaven's artillery the cry, "This will bring the fish" is often heard.

Winter's grip has, so far, retarded this reminder of spring, but there is reason to believe that the frost king will soon relinquish his hold and mellow sunshine will succeed the frigid waves which have recently followed close in the wake of each other.

The precautions which have been taken this year to prevent fishermen operating in Chesapeake Bay from intercepting the bulk of the shad and hearing seeking fresh and warm water for spawning will, if carried out, bring more satisfactory results to those engaged in fishing in the rivers. For many years the catch of food fish has been steadily falling off, so much so that many persons who have provided nests and seines for the spring operations have not been renumerated for their outlay.

Alexandria gillers are preparing for operations. They are, under the law, compelled to lay out their nets below Jones's Point, it being illegal to use gill nets or seines within the waters of the District of Columbia.

The city has not leased Fishtown this year. During a number of years this property has not brought enough money to the city treasury to pay the expenses of keeping it in repair.

Smith, receiver of the corporation, is busy preparing the checks for the 4,000 persons to whom the company is indebted. Dividends amounting to thirty-five per cent have already been paid.

Alleged Horse Thief Brought for Trial After a Long Chase in Two Counties

Residents of Alexandria and Fairfax counties are interested in the outcome of the trial of Edward Robinson, alias Hayes, Harley, Hartlett, and O'Neal, which will be held at Fairfax Courthouse Wednesday. He is charged with stealing a horse from W. H. Muffett, of Vienna, in July, 1911, and it is the first case of horse stealing in this vicinity in more than a dozen years. Robinson was located and arrested in Washington by detectives Thursday. Governor Stuart signed requisition papers for him, but Robinson waived his nights and was brought to Fairfax jail.

Robinson's alleged career is interesting He is said to have admitted he is the man who hired the horse, but denies that he had any intention of stealing it. The owner subsequently recovered the horse and buggy in a badly used up condition in Loudoun county.

Robinson was first heard of in the vicinity of Herndon, where he plied his trade of painter, stopping for a time at the home of Elijah Turner, of Dranesville. He obtained a quanity of paint from a Herndon firm, for which he failed to pay, and then decamped. He next appeared at Vienna with a woman named Mrs. Bertrand Hayes and hired a horse and buggy from the Maffett livery stable. He went to the Snider home and induced Mr. Snider's son Turner, who had helped him on his painting jobs, to accompany him. When the horse and buggy failed to return, Mr. Maffett got busy, and then began a chase over two counties which lasted for three weeks. Robinson got away, but the woman and Turner Snider were arrested and taken to Fairfax. Young Snider was released on bail, but the woman was detained in jail for a time, and then allowed to return to Washington on account of her health. She is still there, and was brought to police headquarters last week to identify Robinson, but declared he was not the man. Robinson has been in Washington off and on during the past two years, but always managed to elude the detectives. His capture last week was largely due to the untiring work of Deputy Sheriff W. D. Cross, of Fairfax, who has been on Robinson's trail for two years or more. A reward of $100 was offered by the Fairfax Board of Supervisors for Robinson's capture.

PLANS FOR PARADE.

Two Thousand Sunday School Scholars Will Appear First Week in May.

Plans for the parade and pageant to be given under the auspices of the Sunday Schools of Alexandria, are rapidly nearing completion. The details are in the hands of a number of committees and when the next meeting is held the date and place of the celebration will be announced. Tentative plans provide for a parade to be given during the first week in May when the pupils of all the Sunday Schools will march to a site on the outskirts of the city where a series of tableaux representing biblical scenes will be given. About 200 children are expected to take part in the celebration.

LADIES WEEK AT GAYETY.

Ladies Week commences today at the Gayety Theatre in Washington. Manager Peck has made all arrangements to take care of the ladies and he hopes to have a large turnout of the fair sex. In nearly all of the big cities of the United States burlesque is a popular form of amusement and the women as well as the men are regular attendants. It is hoped that this will be true in Washington also. Matinees are given every afternoon and an evening performance every night.

Twenty-seven hospitals and asylums for lepers are maintained by foreign mission boards of the United States.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

SMALLPOX IN VIRGINIA.

Disease in Forty Per Cent. of the Counties—Of a Virulent Type.

Richmond, March 23.—Just the exact number of smallpox cases in the State of Virginia at this time is uncertain, but there is good reason for believing that there are more than 500 cases today.

Dr. Ennion G. Williams, State Health Commissioner, said that his reports were to the effect that the disease was in 40 per cent. of the counties, and he made no reference to the cities.

The type of the disease has been more virulent this year than for a long time, there having been more deaths this year than for the preceding six years from the same cause.

Dr. Williams said that there were two cases in which anti-vaccinationists had departed from their preachings and teachings. They had for years defied and resisted the attempts to have them vaccinated, and the heads of the families were stricken with genuine old-fashioned cases. They then lost no time in sending for doctors and having the members of the families vaccinated, and they have escaped the disease.

Dr. Williams has heard one solitary case in which a man who had been vaccinated had smallpox. He was forced to admit that the vaccination did not work in that particular case, and the anti-vaccinationists had evidently scored a good one.

"I made an examination," said Dr. Williams, "and I found that the man had been vaccinated. Yet he had smallpox. He was vaccinated just thirty years before and had not been vaccinated since that time.

"Vaccination is the only thing that will prevent the dread disease," said Dr. Freeman, assistant to Dr. Williams.

AUSTRIAN STEAMER ASHORE.

Part of Cargo Thrown Overboard Before She Could be Floated.

Cape Charles, Va., March 23.—During a blinding snow storm which began Saturday night and continued until noon yesterday, the Austrian steamship Gicanda went ashore two miles southeast of Smiths Island lifesaving Station. Captain Hitchens and his crew left the station for the stranded steamship immediately after she was discovered.

The steamship is not in a particularly dangerous position. After trying for two hours to float the vessel it was found necessary to unload part of her cargo and 30 tons were thrown overboard. Her cargo consisted of tobacco, grain, oil and railroad steel.

The Gicanda si from New Orleans for Antwerp, Belgium via Newport News, where she took on a supply of coal. Her crew is composed of Captain Antongich and 36 men. The steamship was floated at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

SIGNS GIRLS' HOME BILL.

State to Take Over Virginia Home and Industrial School.

Richmond, Va., March 23.—Along with a score of other bills Governor Stuart signed Saturday the bill authorizing the State to take over and operate the Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls, in Chesterfield county, which has been a storm center in the last six months. The measure provides that the home, with buildings valued at $50,000 is to be taken by the State as soon as the Attorney-General investigates the title to the property and reports to the Governor. It provides for the appointment of board of visitors, to be named by the governor on the terms governing the appointment of other State hospital boards.

The Governor likewise signed the bill directing the Governor and the Attorney-general to purchase the Ford Hotel lot from the city of Richmond at a price not to exceed $180,000. Governor Mann attempted to negotiate the transfer of one-half of the Ford lot last fall under the terms of a similar bill passed by the General Assembly of 1912. His overtures met with such a cold reception from the city ,which would not then consider a sale of only a portion of the property. The purchase is to be made only in the event that there is an actual surplus in the State Treasury.

The Code revision bill, the forestry bill and the bill creating a legislative reference bureau as a distinct state department were also signed.

SEGREGATION LAW PASSED.

Measure Prohibits White and Blacks From Residing in Same Block.

Norfolk, Va., March 23.—With one member voting in the negative and one excused from voting, the Common Council Friday night in special session occurred with the Board of Aldermen in adopting an ordinance requiring the use of separate blacks for residences by white and colored people respectively within the city of Norfolk. The vote on this resolution by the Board of Aldermen was unanimous.

Objection to the ordinance came from J. J. Pitt, a member of the council from Washington, ward who said he did not think the measure was just to the negro residents of the city. "I cannot," said Mr. Pitt, "get the consent of my conscience to vote for it, and for that reason make this statement prior to voting." Continuing Mr. Pitt said he is not one of those who subscribe to the doctrine that "might makes right," and that he regarded human rights above property rights.

KILLS YOUTH IN ROW.

Negro Refused to Cut Trousers and Companion Killed Him.

Suffolk, Va., March 23.—Quarreling over a patch for a pair of breeches cost Marcellus Fifer, negro, of Cleveland, N. C., his life Friday afternoon, at the hands of Arthur Covington, another negro, of Unionville, N. C.

Both negroes worked with the Norfolk and Western extra force, between Suffolk and Myrtle at Kink's siding, where the murder occurred.

Covington, 18 years old, weighing about 140, was arrested by Captain Taylor of the extra force, and was turned over to the county authorities. He is now in Nansemond county jail.

Fifer was stabbed with a knife blade about four inches long. There were three wounds in his breast.

According to Covington's story, Fifer asked him for a piece of his pants, which he was wearing, to patch Fifer's trousers. Covington declined to cut his garment, and Fifer cut a piece of them by main force.

Then Covington stabbed him with fatal effect.

Will Try to Break Will.

Harrisonburg, Va., March 23.—Miss Fannie Pirkey, of Massanetta Springs, Rockingham county, will make a fight in court to break the will of Reuben Grubb, the eccentric farmer who committed suicide fourteen months ago near Paulington, leaving an estate valued at $10,000 to the Rockingham Memorial Hospital of Harrisonburg. In a codicil to the will Grubb named Miss Pirkey as legatee in case the hospital could not use the money under the terms stipulated in the will.

Grubb named the County Supervisors as trustees of the fund, which he wished to be used to pay the expenses of indigent patients.

FATAL EXPLOSIONS.

Report of State Chemist Magruder on Valley Tragedies.

Richmond, Va., March 23.—As a sequel to the terrible tale of tragedies in and around Winchester, Va., during the last two weeks of February, when eleven people met their deaths by kerosine oil explosions and fifteen were severaly injured, comes the report of State Chemist E. W. Magruder, who made a rigid analysis of the samples of oil gathered from stores in that vicinity, which declares that instead of kerosene, some of the samples were gasoline.

This report was given to James P. Reardon, commonwealth attorney of Winchester, who is looking into the matter with a view to placing the blame for the explosions, for the purpose of making some reparation to the families of the victims. The community around Winchester has become highly excited over the report of the state chemist. Just what action will be taken has not been decided, although several lawyers have been at work looking up the law.

The explosions occurred between February 11th and March 1st. Most of the cases were from lighting fires with the fluid. In some instances it was probably from carelessness.

The storekeepers take the oil as delivered by the oil companies and place it in tanks, from which it is drawn for the customer. Inadequate oil inspection in the State is declared to be indirectly contributory to the accidents.

BIBLE CONFERENCE.

Richmond, March 23.—A great meeting and Bible conference was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in Broad Street Methodist Church. All the adult classes of the Methodist Sunday schools in the city and vicinity attended.

The Rev. Dr. Charles D. Bulla, of Nashville, Tenn., conducted the conference. Dr. Bulla is the superintendent of the Wesley Bible classes of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and one of the foremost Sunday School men in the country.

The Wesley Bible classes of Barton Heights Methodist Church came in special cars to the city to attend the conference.

NOT WOOING MRS. ASTOR.

Report That he Would Marry Rich Widow Without Foundation, Friends Say.

Bristol, Va., March 23.—Congressman C. B. Slemp, whose wife is suing for divorce, is not paying attention to Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, according to information obtained.

The report that he might marry Mrs. Astor is said to be without foundation although the rumor came from an apparently reliable source.

Judge John W. Price, counsel for Mrs. C. B. Slemp in her suit for divorce against Congressman Slemp, stated that there had been a rumor afloat for a year that Congressman Slemp was paying attentions to Mrs. Madeline Force Astor, but that the report had never been confirmed.

VIRGINIA HAS A GALAXY.

From the foundation of the government up to the breaking out of the civil war Virginians figured prominently in the affairs of the nation. For many years following the close of that conflict not only Virginia but the entire southern country were kept in a partial eclipse by the republican majority which continued in power for twenty years. Subsequently men like Ben Hill, Wade Hampton, Zeb Vance and other luminaries appeared upon the political stage. Brilliant men from the Old Dominion appeared in Congress, and the tide which had been ebbing from the Southern section of the country began to turn and Virginia statesmen are again in the front ranks.

A Virginian is President of the United States.

A grandson of Virginia is Vice-President of the United States.

Senator Martin, of Virginia, is chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

Senator Swanson, of Virginia, is chairman of the Senate Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.

Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, is a Virginian and chairman of the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency.

Senator Lewis, of Illinois, is a Virginian, and chairman of the Senate Committee on Expenditures in State Department.

Representative W. A. Jones, of Virginia, is chairman of the House Committee on Insular Affairs.

Representative Carter Glass, of Virginia, is chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency.

Representative James Hay, of Virginia, is chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs.

Representative H. D. Flood, of Virginia, is chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs.

John Skelton Williams, of Virginia, is Comptroller of the Currency, and is said to be slated for Secretary of the Treasury.

TREASURES OF THE SNOW.

"Don't grow hot under the collar and make uncomplimentary remarks about the continuous succession of snow storms that are making underfoot disagreeable and holding back the coming of gentle spring, for we need this snow in the business of reducing the high cost of living."

This is the injunction of the soil experts of the department of agriculture. The longer the snow blanket lingers, the more frequently it is replenished, the slower it is to take its final vernal departure without any sudden dash into the headquarters of the streams with consequent freshets and flood the better for everybody. It means gigantic crops of corn and wheat, better vegetables, more stock feed, and may be lower prices.

After Job and his comforters had pondered weak and wearily over the problems of life and the mysteries of Providence, the Creator, we are told, answered the Chaldean patriarch out of the whirlwind, and, among other things, asked Job if he had "entered into the treasures of the snow." Some have supposed that all that is intended by this interrogation is an illusion to the beautiful display of snow flakes under the microscope which instrument makes them appear in a variety of shapes—such as diamonds, triangles, etc. It would seem from the above that the beautiful snow brings with it blessings far superior to dazzling crystals.

APPOINTMENT OF R. C. L. MONCURE.

President Wilson sent to the Senate on Saturday the name of Senator R C. L. Moncure of Stafford county, as internal revenue collecter of the Western District of Virginia. The appointment, which will bring to an end a long fight on the part of Mr. Moncure, and his friends, is most satisfactory to the people of this section of Virginia. For many years Mr. Moncure has been an active figure in Democratic circles of the Eighth Congressional District. Under his leadership Stafford county has been brought into the Democratic ranks and so popular is Mr. Moncure in that district that in recent years in his fight for the house of delegates and the State senatorship he has had no Republican opposition. For a number of years he has represented this district on the State Democratic committee. He is a young man of ability and has many years of usefulness before him. He is a brother of Hon. Robinson Moncure of Alexandria.

RESIGNS AS GENERAL MANAGER

"Shall we be missed when by another succeeded?" is what every man or woman on this earth would like to know, especially when the major portion of their mechanical life has been spent in reaching a point of success which is the envy of many. Theodore V. Ale, general manager of the Virginia Glass Company, one well known to all of us, has been a leading factor in the success of the company and through zealous care and hard work, night and day, foregoing all the pleasures that his social standing entitles him to, and which was his by right, to benefit an institution in which he put his whole being, has severed his connection with the Virginia Glass Works. Mr Ale, for reasons best known to himself, and as well known by his friends, has tendered his resignation and has accepted a position with the Old Dominion Glass Works, a company which operates both the Old Dominion and the Belle Pre. This goes to prove that a good man cannot be kept down and is wanted at all times. It is fortunate at this time that the Old Dominion Glass Company has the opportunity of adding to its already popular force the services of a man like Theodore Ale. He is honored and respected by the business men of this city and state, for what he guaranteed was as stable as the character he possesses. The Virginia's loss is the Old Dominion's gain. Luck to Mr. Ale wherever his lot may be cast. H.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothrum, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, who has been confined to his home in Baltimore, 1601 Park Place, suffering from an attacq of erysipelas, was thought to be slightly improved yesterday evening, though not out of danger. In the morning he was threatened with another chill, but escaped it, and was much improved in spirits later in the day. It is not anticipated that the bishop will be able to attend any session of the Baltimore annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, which meets here for a week beginning tomorrow. But he will be in consultation with the presiding bisops and will probably have the guiding voice in the settling of the problems which may come up before that body.

Charles Young ,a negro, was lynched last night at Clanton, Ala., by a mob of enraged citizens, and several bullets were fired into the swinging body as the crowd dispersed. Young was accused of attacking Mrs. Anderson Wilson, a white woman 60 years old. It is charged he afterwards robbed the house, beat the woman and threatened to kill her.

Pringle T. Youhmans, lawyer, of Columbia, S. C., and member of the Richmond county delegation of the lower house of the General Assembly, was knocked down and killed yesterday by an automobile driven by Harry L. Davis, a garage owner. Davis was held at police headquarters to await the result of an inquest. Mr. Youhmans was 45 years old. He was married in Augusta three weeks ago to Mrs. May Bronson, of Columbia. He was the oldest son of the late Leroy F. Youhmans, Attorney-General of South Carolina, and was a student with Woodrow Wilson in the Barnwell school, of Columbia, and in the law school of the University of Virginia.

Bishop Luther B. Wilson, of New York, who is presiding elder of the Newark, N. J., conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in a sermon in the Halsey Street Church, Newark, yesterday said to the delegates: "I see many times Catholic men lift their hats as they pass their places of worship. I would that you and I had such deep regard for religion. It seems to me that we should second this practice, and exhibit this reverence not alone to our own places, but to all places of worship. And I commen this to you for your consideration."

Natives in the north of Malekula Island, of the New Hebrides group, have murdered and eaten six natives, teachers from the Walla Island mission station.

What was regarded generally as a slight earthquake shock occurred yesterday in Portland, Oreg., and was reported from widely scattered districts throughout the city. Windows were rattled and houses swayed slightly. There was no damage.

The body of Anna O'Donnell, 22 years old, was found floating in the Delaware river yesterday at Philadelphia near the spot where she was alleged to have jumped in on the night of January 31. The body, which evidently had been sticking in the mud on the river's bottom, was identified by the clothing. Two young men, who were with the girl the night she disappeared, were arrested, but were later released on a writ of habeas corpus. They declared that she had jumped into the river while on the way to Camden to marry one of them. The coroner will have an autopsp performed to discover whether the body bears evidence of foul play.

Twenty thousand dollars' worth of diamond rings were secured by two robbers, who entered the establishment of H. J. Homrich, a jeweler, of Huntington, W. Va., Saturday night, and took the gems at the point of a pistol, after which they mingled with the shopping crowd. Charles F. Reushlein, a jeweler, gave chase, and pursued the men until they started into an alley a block away from the store. He followed them into the alley, but one of them pulled a revolver and fired at him twice He was unarmed, and gave up the pursuit.

Outrages by brigands, in central China are assuming alarming proportions. Several bands associated with the noted outlaw White Wolf are ravaging various sections of the country, ruthlessly murdering and robbing the people and burning their property. The latest exploit of the bandits was the massacre of 300 towns folk who were resisting their entrance into an important market town close to Siangyyangfu, province of Hupeh. Seven-tenths of the town was burned and the population ruined financially.

When you buy Foley's Honey and Tar Compound because just a few doses stop the cough and heals the cold, one bottle lasts a long time, and the last dose is as good as the first. Mrs. SSS 20 Van Buren St., Kingston, N .Y., says: "Father had lagrippe and his cough was something terrible and he could not sleep. BITES END OFF NOSE.

Sews Piece Back in Place With Aid of Mirror.

Philadelphia, March 23.—As Dr. Robert L. Leighton, chief resident physician of the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital, lay peacefully slumbering in his room in that institution early Friday morning a male patient, who is believed to have been a victim of delirium tremens, crept silently to his bed and bit the physician's nose. With a shriek of pain, Dr. Leighton leaped from his bed, and found that the entire end of his nose was almost severed from his face. Although suffering terribly from the intense pain, Dr. Leighton applied first aid methods, and, if his features remain intact, it will be due to his own heroic efforts.

At the first cry of the physician the delirious patient fled. Dr. Estosito, who shares the room with Dr. Leighton, was awakened by the uproar. When he saw the patient bolt from the room, leaving the resident physician with blood streaming from his lacerated nose, Dr. Estosito hurried in pursuit of the fugitive. The chase extended through the hospital corridors and then to the street, where after a run of several blocks, Dr. Estosito lost sight of the fleeing man.

Meanwhile Dr. Leighton hurried tto the emergency room and, with the aid of a mirror, sewed up the end of his injured nose. Eight stitches were required, and, when he had finished, the loss of blood and intense pain caused him to collapse. He was unconscious when Dr. Estosito returned. An examination of the nose showed that the patient's teeth had penetrated to the bone.

REWICKING Made Easy

EASY wicking is only one of the many improvements that make the new Perfection Oil Heater. (Triangle trade mark) superior to any oil heater ever made before.

Wick and carrier are in one. Just turn up the old wick, slip it out and drop another in place.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

This New Model Perfection Heater is smokeless, odorless and economical.

The shape of the font, wide and shallow, allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures an even, glowing heat even when the font is almost empty. The font holds more than a gallon of oil and an indicator shows the amount of fuel left at a glance.

There is no smoke or smell with a Perfection. The automatic-locking flame-spreader prevents smoking. No gallery to unscrew, or catch oil and dust.

Made with vitreous blue enamel or plain steel drums. Ornamental, inexpensive, lasts for years. Easily cleaned and moved about.

RABBI ATTACKS SUFFRAGE.

Rev. Joseph Silverman Warns Against Tendencies of Femininist Movement.

New York, March 23.—A remarkable sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman, the widely known rabbi, in Temple Immanuel, yesterday.

"There are a number of misguided women interested in the suffrage movement," he said, "and to them I want to say that if the women are accorded the ballot the majority who vote will be those who will advocate free love and the result will be that women will become unsexed.

"A German advocate of the feminist movement declared that women were being kept behind in the advance of the times by the drag of chains of motherhood. Such advance as that writer hopes to see spells free love, polygamy and disruption of the home.

"One advocate of the feminist movement has had the audacity to suggest that the children, the products of free love and polygamy, should, if necessary, be reared by the State.

"I denounce all those persons implicated in the femininist movement.

"Barring a few of the leaders, this whole campaign is carried on by women of that masculine type who have lost their womanly virtue and are familiar with the divorce courts."

Rabbi Silverman commended the Catholic Church for its attitude on woman suffrage.

GOAT GOES MAD AS DOGS.

Unusual Manifestation of Hydrophobia at Wynnewood.

Wynnewood, Pa., March 23.—A goat believed to be suffering from rabies caused a great deal of excitement on the country estate of Dr. Thomas G. Ashton, at Wynnewood, before it was killed, and resulted Friday in the death of two fine Irish terriers belonging on the estate.

In the same inclosure with the goat were two Irish terriers females, both having fine pedigrees. These, like the goat, were the personal property of Thomas Clark, who is employed by Dr. Ashton.

Fear that the dogs may have been infected with rabies resulted in a decision to kill them.

POISONS THIRTY HORSES.

Arsenic in Mangers Kills 16. And Only Two of Others Can Survive.

Philadelphia, March 23.—Thirty horses were poisoned by arsenic in their feed yesterday in the livery stable of Samuel Ladenson, Nos. 417, 19-21, and Carpenter street, bringing to the attention of the police and agents of the cruelty societies one of the most dastardly acts of revenge ever perpetrated in this city. Of the 30 poisoned animals 16 died during the day and 12 others are dying. Veterinarians expect to save only two.

According to the humane society agents, several persons broke in through the manure yard of the stable during the night and placed the poison in the animal's feed. No one saw the poisoners, and there is no evidence to show who they are. Ladenson says they probably are business rivals and he has given the agents several names, but the agents declare they have not enough evidence as yet to justify any arrests.

NO CUT RATES TO CLERGY.

Public Service Commission Acts Under Constitution and Law.

Harrisburg, March 23.—Ministers come within the State Constitution in its prohibition of free or reduced rate transportation to any class of persons except railroad employees, according to a decision rendered by the Public Service Commission. It therefore denies the clergy's request for a ruling that ministers may be transported at reduced fares.

Furthermore, the Commission says the law that gave it birth forbids such reduced rates of transportation "or any rebate, drawback or abatement for any service rendered." The Commission commends the clergy to the next Legislature for possible relief, and hopes the enforcement of the explicit law may lead to a raising of ministerial salaries.
